MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director

Dick:

Of course the few unclassified items could be released. The remainder, however, appear to be official, classified records and, to my knowledge, we have not released such files to an individual. I understand, however, that Mr. Cline believes a couple of these papers have some bearing on his current responsibilities and he would, therefore, like to have them. I see no objection to giving him the list, which I believe should be classified also. Then, if he specifies that he needs certain ones for current, official purposes, they could be made available to him. The rest would appear to be duplicates and could be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by our archivist.

Remarks:

Elizabeth said the Director wants you to look at the attached papers. He said he realizes you cannot make a judgment about all of them but what is your feeling about our position on this. He said he thinks it is very clear but wants to be sure.

She added that what he really wants to know is can we do, or have we done, this. He does not want to say "no" to Ray Cline and find that we have said "yes" to Joe Doaks.
